

NOURISHING EMERGENCY IN BOLIVIA Due to the meteorological effect of the "Boy" torrential rains are knocking down great part of Bolivia with possible epidemics of diseases in the selváticas zones and desbordamientos of the rivers in all the country. In the Hyaihuasi community of La Paz, Abajo river, where we helped to the population farmer by means of the clergyman Daniel Jesus Rossibassinger of Andean the Chacana Foundation, the underflow of the river has destroyed the food harvests, only source nourishing and labor of the population of the zone as well as demolished diverse houses completely. It is for that reason which they request urgent economic aid to us for the purchase of all type of foods of first necessity until rains finish, whose main center is right now in La Paz, and for the reconstruction of the houses. In maintained conversation east last Sunday and textual words, "is difícil to watch the face to them and to say to them that you do not have anything to offer to them to eat, since the money finished to me and not from where removing more". Thanks to the habitual generosity of company TRUYOL we have posters to such effect, which you must to your disposition to place them in sites of great affluence of public. This same Monday we have made the first shipment of urgent money by an amount of 650? contributed by this ONGD. At the end of the month we will make another shipment with the money obtained by this campaign. The one that wishes to contribute any amount can do it in our accounts during these days. Thank you very much by your collaboration. Hazte Partner! Only 25? to the year!
